

I believe they have broken their agreement with the FCC and this affects not only corporations, but hundreds of thousands of employees of these companies...On the community side of things..satelite radio will not be in local communities assisting with the fund raising, local projects and the interaction of people. What this country needs is MORE community involvement, not less.